BITS O' TALK

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mudge have been spending some time with his mother, Mrs. Howard Johnson and family.

Paul Berry was home from Lansing weekend before last to visit his parents, the Stanleys. Berube, Mr. and Mrs. Basil, Karen, Laurie and Brian, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Westbrook in Highland Park the weekend before last.

Will the party who has the stammer from the Legion New Years Party please return it to Bob Lamotte at the Legion Club. Thanks.

Camp Grayling Superintendent:

Bill Kinkert, Capt. Ed Rutkowski, Lt. Duane Sloan, CWO Perry Wells, and Lt. David Hanson were in Lansing Tuesday of last week on business with the military establishment.

Young couples are waiting longer before taking on the role of parents. There are delaying this step for a few years after marriage. Older married couples, by the same token, are ending their child bearing careers sooner than was the case ten years ago.

What is the reason for this change in attitude? A number of explanations are advanced. One is that it is becoming increasingly expensive to bring up children. Providing for their food, cloth and education, while carrying the present day tax load, takes a lot of income.

Added to this is the tighter job situation and the trend toward a permanent house living, with the space limitations that it involves.

Reese Cox was presented a 20 dollar bill for securing the most members for 1963. Donated by Commander Long.

There will be a movie shown at our next social meeting April 27th by Naval recruiting officer, this should be an interesting film and everyone is urged to attend to see it.

In addition to the tank we now have on display at the Legion, we will soon have a surplus T-33 jet plane for display. Permission has been granted by the City to put same between Legion and Tufts Auto Supply. Plans to be brought in from Wurtsmith Field. Jack Miller has donated a truck and trailer and Burd Swartwout will drive it over and bring it back.

Attention to all members. Any member who has not paid his dues for 1963 by April FIRST will be classed as delinquent, and have to be reinstated before acceptance. So why not take care of this now?

We are still offering 3 games for a dollar from Monday thru Saturday at the bowling alley, here's a good chance to get in that extra practice you might need. Hours for this rate are from 12 noon to 6 P.M. Children still 25 cents per line.

45 year continuous membership cards were presented to Alfred Harson and Einer Rasmussen, that means that they joined when the Legion first started and have kept up their membership for 45 years. Congratulations. 35 year continuous membership cards were presented to George Morrison, John Deckrow and Paul Feldhauser.

Two bowling teams are leaving Saturday morning for Detroit where they will compete in the Legion Bowling tournament. This is an annual Legion tournament.

2.3 Births For Every Death In County

(Special to the Avalanche)

NEW YORK - Crawford County produced a big excess in the number of births over the number of deaths during the past decade, according to a special population study released by the Government. It shows that 2.3 local residents were born in the period for every one who died.

The composite figures reveal that there were 4,177 live births and 302 deaths in the 10 years. This refers to local residents only. Excluded are any non-residents who were born or who died in the county.

The source of the data assembled by the Department of Commerce, was the vital statistics that have been gathered each year by the U. S. Public Health Service. The results are given for each county in the United States.

Although the rate of births is still at a high level in Crawford County, such is not the case in every part of the country. The figures indicate that the national rate has been dropping for the last five years, reversing the upward trend that had been in progress since 1945.

average annual birth rate amounted to 25.5 per 1,000 population.

By way of comparison, the birth rate throughout the United States averaged 24.7 per 1,000. It was 25.1 in the East North Central States.

From the evidence at hand, it appears that the large family idea is at an end, at least for the present. The desire, or the intention, to have more than one or two children seems to be diminishing.

The faculty scored on 15 field goals and 11 out of 22 free throw tries. They were called for 14 personal fouls. The varsity club counted 16 times from the field but hit on only 9 out of 18 of the foul line. They were called for 17 personal fouls.

Proceeds from the game will be used to take the members of the varsity club on a day's outing sometime this summer.

Other varsity club members who got in the game but failed to hit the scoring column were: Mark Anderson, Ron Lovell, Dick Trudeau, Dave Johnson and Tom Duncan. The teachers had the support of LeRoy Akers but he did not get into the contest.

I will end my letter by thanking my Mom and Dad for their help and encouragement, both financially and spiritually, for I realize without their help this trip might not have been possible.

the mountains, for the first time, is an experience so impressive I will never forget it.

We skied every day and almost all day long. The people in Jackson were very friendly and would go out of their way to make us feel at home. They arranged transportation for the teams, to the park and back in Jeep pickups all gayly decorated with our team colors.

They also drove us to and from the High School where we ate our dinners.

There was entertainment for us every evening. Dances, movies, floor shows, etc. The experience and hospitality was wonderful and I am certainly going to try to make the National Ski Team again next year.

My hopes are that next year Grayling can be represented at the Nationals by more skiers and knowing the ability of the local boys and girls I've skied with, this is not an impossibility although the competition in the National's is much greater than anything I have ever encountered.

I wish also to take this opportunity to thank the following people:

Mr. Jack Mason for doing such an excellent job as our team manager.

Mr. Hugo Bohm, Coach, for his unceasing efforts in teaching us the techniques of racing and good sportsmanship.

Mr. Fred Lonsdorf of Houghton Tech, Houghton, Mich., and his coaching staff for additional advice on the finer points of competitive skiing.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Gratzel, Walborn Lake, Mich., Chaperones who did not have an easy job of being Mother & Dad to 26 boys and girls away from home.

That Proposed Tax Cut...

It is an ancient political axiom that a tax reduction—almost any tax reduction program—is dear to the heart of elected public officials, particularly those in legislative office and most particularly those in the national Congress. Here is one major legislative area, the taxation runs, where it is possible to win the gratitude and allegiance of multitudes, while alienating practically none.

Yet President Kennedy's ambitious tax reduction plan became bogged in the Congressional mires from the word go. The reasons why that is so are varied and in some instances opposed. And there's small doubt that discussions of the plan, pro and con, have fallen into the well of oversimplification.

To begin with, the President coupled tax reduction with what, in his mind, is needed tax reform—the closing of certain tax "loopholes". The cuts were to run to $13.5 billion; while the reforms were to pick up $3.5 billion for a reduction of $10 billion. But one man's loophole is another man's necessity, and there was grave doubt as to the Administration proposals in this area. The President has since said that he is willing to abandon the reforms, for the time being, if that is a price of gaining approval for an immediate tax cut. But Congressional minds are pinned on an overhaul of the whole tax system, and many members think that should be step one.

Then, there is the matter of where the emphasis on tax reduction should be laid—that is, to what income groups, and what part of it should be applied to industry. One school, led by the major unions, holds that the bulk should go to the smaller income earners, on the theory that the additional spending power would move at once into the channels of commerce, buying goods and services. The opposition takes the view that increased industrial investment and expansion, a major Adminis-tion goal, can only be achieved by a marked lightening of the tax burden now borne by high-income individuals and by business. Reconciling these two camps is no simple matter.

A further confusion was recently added. The President said, at first, that the tax program was needed to make a good economy a still better one. Now he says that it is needed as antirecession insurance. Many members of Congress regard these positions as being opposed, and want further enlightenment.

More important is the question of tax and fiscal philosophy. The Administration now offers what is called a "planned deficit". Past deficits, the story goes, resulted from accident or emergency or faulty forecasting—that is, from wars, depressions, recessions, and failure of the economy to reach predicted levels of output. But the proposed planned deficit is exactly what the term implies. Even though it is very large, the argument continues, it need not be dangerous nor inflationary, and, in the long run, by stimulating business and solving the unemployment problem, it will lead to a balanced budget. This proposition has found plenty of skeptics both within and without Congress.

Another difficult element is found in the overall tax picture—which is the total take of government, by whatever means. Federal taxes, by way of example, went up substantially this January 1, because of the increase in the Social Security assessment. Every worker and employer feels that, immediately and directly. And it is difficult to find a state, or any other body with the power to tax, that isn't in search of more revenue. It's a case where we can rob Peter to pay Paul.

Finally, great numbers of people, and some of the leading members of Congress, hold that tax reduction is desirable and necessary—but that it must be accompanied by offsetting cuts in nonessential spending. The Administration shows small appetite for this, and the conflict may be the cause of a major show-down. We shall see what we shall see.

In the Old Timers Picture contest that has been running in the Detroit News, a photograph of the Grayling baseball team of 1912 appeared in Tuesday's edition. On another page was a story in connection with the picture which said "The Grayling, Michigan baseball team of 1912 was in the lime-light when it defeated Tom Stoenen's famous Otsego club four games out of seven. Those appearing in the picture are O. P. Schumann, sports editor of Crawford Avalanche; Bill Green, Leo Bubbin, "Hawk" Hanson, team manager, ager who now resides in Ypsilanti; Earl Woodburn, former Detroit coal dealer; Spencer Meistrup, Detroit; Jake Letkus, now of Compton, Calif.; J. Kuebler; Johnny Hodge, Highland Park; "Dago" Laurent, Grayling; "Baldy" Spencer, now of Saginaw; Carl Johnson, Grayling; Jimmy McMann; Dr. Stanley N. Insley, official score keeper; George Belanger, umpire, now a Detroit policeman; Clarence Johnson, bat boy, now manager of Grayling Winter Sports, Inc. The youngster standing near his father's Buick touring car is Dr. Stanley Insley, now a prominent Detroit physician. The picture came from Roy Hodge, 30 Cottage Grove Avenue, Highland Park. Incidentally, the latter is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hodge, and no doubt the picture of the Otsego club that appeared on this contest page some weeks ago prompted the young man to make the entry of the Grayling group.

Phil Faustman is spending a few days visiting relatives in Bellevue, Michigan. Junior Palmer enjoyed vacation week visiting the Ralph Oaks family at Clio, Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Charles David of Flint spent the weekend visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Buggy. George Barber left for Big Bay Sunday morning where he was sent by the Kerr and Hanson company to work in their mill there.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Nielson and sons Weldon and Melvin spent the weekend in Lansing visiting Mrs. Nielson's sister, Mrs. Arthur Lindley and family. Mrs. Theodore Stephan and daughter Yetive spent Tuesday in Petoskey on business. Miss Fern Akers has returned home after spending several weeks visiting her brother Donald Akers and family in Harrisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bousson spent Sunday in West Branch visiting the latter's son and family, the Frank Tetts. The occasion was to celebrate Mrs. Tetts and her little daughter Monica's birthdays that fall a few days apart.

Don Reynolds and family are moving to Clare, where Mr. Reynolds has secured a position with an electric supply company. Their home on Cedar street has been rented by the Willard Harwood family.

Mrs. Jack Papendick was very pleasantly surprised Friday afternoon when several of her friends dropped in, in a group, to extend felicitations as that day was her birthday anniversary. Three tables of pinochle were in play during the afternoon with honor scores going to Mrs. Richard Lovely, Mrs. Leo Jorgenson and Mrs. Ernest Busnette. A very nice potluck lunch was served.

To compliment her husband, who was celebrating his birthday anniversary Monday, Mrs. Robert LaMotte invited in eleven couples that evening, surprising him completely. Pinochle was the diversion with William LaMotte holding the high score and Lawrence Gale of Gaylord winning consolation. The group presented the guest of honor with a nice gift. Mrs. LaMotte served a delicious lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Esbern Olson drove to Bay City Sunday to accompany home the latter's mother, Mrs. Elthen Failing, who had spent the past three months visiting at the home of her daughter, Miss Margaret Failing.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Harry Sonders was hostess at two tables of bridge, Miss Odie Sheedy and Mrs. Eugene Papendick held the winning scores. The hostess served a delicious lunch at the close of the very pleasant afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Andrews are happy over the arrival of an eight pound son, Larry Charles, born Saturday morning at the home of Mrs. Andrews' mother, Mrs. Matilda Nelson. There are two sons and a daughter in the family now.

The house on the property on Cedar street that Amos Hunter recently purchased is being razed and contractors will soon begin building an up-to-date creamery building. Mr. Hunter bought the property of Miss Florence Taylor who had owned it for years. She said it was built by John Hadley over 50 years ago and was the home of that family for years. Miss Taylor had rented to tenants while she owned it.

There are a lot of Grayling people who are driving to Traverse City this week to see "Gone With the Wind" that has a week's engagement at a theatre there. All report the production to be every bit as good as it has been advertised.

Not until the year 2,380 will there be another such early Easter, a Michigan editor has discovered. Easter came the earliest this year of any time since 1799, on March 24. Easter comes the first Sunday after the first full moon following March 20. So March 20 is the earliest it possibly could be.

Mrs. Louis Kessler, Mrs. Thomas Cassidy and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Kessler arrived in town early Sunday morning. Mrs. Kessler had been in Florida since the holidays and had enjoyed a pleasant winter the guest of her brother W. A. Cassidy and wife of Midland. The remainder of the party left Grayling on March 18 to accompany Mrs. Kessler home, and had a very enjoyable trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Holger D. Hanson and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sorenson, who have been spending the winter in Houston, Texas, are on their way home and are expected to arrive any day now. We hear that "Dad" became a golf enthusiast while in Texas, so he probably will be seen on the local course a lot this summer.

Miss Virginia Feldhausen, who has been in Florida the past seven months where she was a domestic in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Shoemaker at Coral Gables, returned to Grayling Monday night.

FORD HAS PROVED IT'S AHEAD OF COMPETITION IN PERFORMANCE AND DURABILITY!!

Performance and durability don't necessarily go together. In four out of five of the big, open competitive road and track events to date, mechanical failure forced many cars to quit. But Ford kept going--to win every time. That's performance with the emphasis on durability. Speed and acceleration play only a small part. It's cornering and steering and handling. It's holding the road. It's braking surely and safely. And the consistent winner is certain to be a better car for the kind of driving you do--every day. Drive a total performance Ford and see.

MONTE CARLO,
MONACO

Jan. 23

Falcon gave the world a demonstration of total performance in the 2,500-mile Monte Carlo Rally. A special-edition Falcon V-8 Sprint took first and second in its class--the surprise star of this international classic.

DAYTONA, FLA.
Feb. 24

Again in open competition, over 70,000 people saw Super Torque Fords finish 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th in the annual Daytona "500." Ford's 5-in-a-line victory stands as an almost unbelievable demonstration of total performance.
